The Tailenders and the Leaders fought it out down at Walker's pasture yester-day afternoon, and the result was decidedly in favor of the former. At the end of nine innings, the score stood 13 to 3. it might have been worse. "Perish the thought," said John, The

If our team will only continue to play ball as it did yesterday afternoon there will be no fear as to the result. The boys played national league errorless ball all the way through, and outclassed the champs at every turn of the doings. They didn't depend upon good theories, but played ball all the time, using their thinkers as well as their mitts and under-

The Bables undoubtedly felt bad. So the Bables undoubtedly felt bad. So the John the Honest. It was too much for him and he wept. His stars lost their nerve, and went up into the blue ether, while the local crowd plugged steadily along and refused to become rattled. But in justice to the visitors, it must be said that Weaver and Houtz played championship ball. But of course there is nothing particularly new in this. Can any one recall the time that the young man Weaver ever played anything else. He devoured everything that came to him in middle garden, and made one throw to home, cutting off a run that Meredith figured on landing, that was simply remarkable, aoutz, in left garden, made one of the pretties catches of the season, taking the most difficult chance imaginable. Hausen knecked a foul fly over to left near the elephant and Houtz dashed for it. Hardly any one believed he had even a remote chance to get the spheroid but Houtz had an idea of his own. He nalled the horsehilde and had to pull the reverse lever to prevent going head-first through the fence, it was one of he most brilliant feats of the season.

He had the champs at his mercy but showed none. Only once did they seem to scover from their dizziness. In the sixth they bunched three hits, but right here Elmer brought that headplece of his incoplay, and there was nothing to it any more. more.

Poor Thompson, of National league fame, was hammered a plenty. Fourteen hits! In the eighth every man was up. They made five hits and Meredith drew a pass, netting seven talies, six of them extract.

CHANCE FOR DICK RICHARDS. His Vriends Want Him for Umpire in Pacific National League.

Now that Umpires Sharp and McCarthy have gone, and the league is without official indicator-holders, what are the magnates going to do about it?

It/may be proper to press players into service to call balls and strikes, but to the average fan it does not look so awfully good.

The friends of Dick Richards are urging him to go after the job, and it is not unlikely that he would accept it if the offer is made. Dick would make a fine umpire. He understands the game thoroughly in all its details and there can be no question as to his fairness.

He has umpired games around these parts for some time, and has always given satisfaction. With "Slats" Davis and Dick holding the indicators, all parties concerned should be satisfied. Pacific National League.

SPORTING NOTES.

Do you feel good about yesterday after-oon's ball game?

Yesterday was Ladies' day at the ball park, and the fair sex was well represent-ed. Friday is also Ladiees' day.

Rastus Wright and Essick are due to oppose each other on the rubber this afternoon. If the Gimbinites will support Essick as they did Meredith yesterday we may win another game. Wright is suffering from a sore hand, but it may not interfere with his pitching.

New York, June 8.—Thomas Sharkey the puglist, has been married in this city to Miss Catherine McIntosh of Michigan, a professional nurse, who attended him during a recent illness.

The fight at Bingham between "Silen Rowan and a young miner named Kid Harris, resulted in a fifteen-round draw. The bout was well attended. A. Mc-Bride and Kid Bush fought a ten-round draw. Draws seem to be in style at Bing-ham and Eureka.

Never, perhaps, in the annals of balk line billiards has there been such an exciting scene as that witnessed in the match between M. Cure and Jacob Schaefer at the Nouvre Acqure, says a dispatch to the Herald from Paris. The French expert in the second inning Wednesday evening ran 255 points, thus beating by more than a "half century" the record of 200 made by George Sutton when playing a game with Vignaux in the tournament of 1903. When, after scoring 255 Cure failed to get out of balk, there was a gasp of disappointment from his friends, followed by cheering which lasted for some minutes. The run lasted 33½ minutes.

Middleweights Finish Training And Say They Are Ready For the Gong.

JIMMY FLYNN IS THE FAVORITE

But the Betting is Light - Tommy Has Many Admirers Here-Contest Takes Place in Grand Theater.

Jimmy Flynn and Tommy Rellly are waiting for the gong to send them on their twenty-round Marquis of Queens bury tour tonight. The middleweights, 158 pounds, claim to be down to weight and trained to the hour, and both declars they can not lose Which one is due to be on the receiving nd of the slumber-producing jolt? From the appearance of the men, it is safe to say that each possess the long-end-of-the-purse-punch. Who will land it?

That is the question to be decided to night. For several weeks the fighters have been working daily at their respective training working dally at their respective training quarters and on the road, improving their speed, their punching ability, and their breathing apparatus. They say their condition is spiendid, and their appearance bespeaks the truth of the statement.

The selection of a referee has not been made, or had not been made at this writing, but it is not imprebable that Willard Bean will be asked to officiate in that capacity. Flynn said this morning:

"I don't care if there is no referce at all. I think when I get to Reilly there will be nothing to do but count the money."

Relity said:
"I am due to win tonight. If I fail I will have no excuse to offer, I think I have it over Flynn. If not, the sconer I learn it the better."

One preliminary is billed, It will be eight rounds to a decision between "Young Tex," a little boxer who travels with Flynn, and "Freckles," a bantamweight, who has been in the roped arena for several years. He claims to have had two contests with McGovern, and is credited with a good showing against the once terrible. The youngsters look to be in good shape, and say they will furnish the best preliminary ever seen here. The bout is billed for $:30 promptly.
